

Please make it much more difficult for single persons or groups to own our airwaves. The Media is so biased today, that I, an American, must go to the internet and read other nations newspapers to find truth. Please don't let political affiliations steal our freedom of the press!